"or extension personnel in vocational agriculture education."

and by substituting instead the following:

. This section does not prohibit extension personnel nor vocational agriculture teachers from doing educational work that is considered normal to their profession.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from Section 7 the words "under supervision of a licensed veterinarian" and substituting instead the words "under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian".

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from Section 7, subsection (A), item (1) in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

A. (1) A veterinarian who meets all qualifications and requirements pursuant to this chapter and who has applied to take the examination as provided in Section 63-12-115. Such license shall remain valid until the results of the examinations are made known to the applicant. Failure on both examinations will result in immediate termination of the license. If the applicant fails one of the examinations, he may be issued a second temporary license but must continue under direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian and only until the results of the next regularly scheduled examination are known.

If an applicant fails the same examination on two separate testing dates, he may, in the discretion of the Board, and upon agreeing to meet any additional requirements of the Board, be issued a third temporary license for up to one year plus the time until the results of the second regularly scheduled examination after issuance of the temporary license are made known. During the validity of the temporary license, the applicant must be under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian. No applicant shall be allowed to take the same examination more than three times.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from Section 7, subsection (B), item (2) the second paragraph in its entirety.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting Section 17 in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 63-12-134, is amended by deleting in its entirety and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Abandonment of animals. - (1) Every licensed veterinarian shall have a lien on each animal or pet treated, boarded or cared for by him while in his custody and under contract with the owner of such animal or pet for payment of charges for treatment, board or care of such animal or pet. Such veterinarian shall have the right to retain such animal or pet until said charges are paid.

(2) If the charges due for the services named in this section are not paid within ten (10) days after demand therefor on the owner of said animal or pet, in person, or by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested, addressed to the owner at the address given when said animal or pet is delivered, and the receipt has been returned by the United States postal authorities, said animal or pet shall be deemed to be abandoned and the licensed veterinarian is authorized to sell the animal or pet either at public or private sale, and if he does not succeed in selling such animal or pet within ten (10) days, then he is authorized to dispose of such animal or pet in any manner that he deems proper or turn the animal or pet over to the nearest humane society or dog pound in the area for disposal as such custodian deems proper.

(3) The giving of notice to the owners, as provided herein, shall relieve the licensed veterinarian, or any custodian to whom such animal or pet may be given, of any further liability for disposal.

(4) Failure of the owner of any such animal or pet to receive the demand by registered or certified mail provided for in this section shall not render the licensed veterinarian liable to the owner of such animal or pet for the disposal thereof in any manner provided in this section.

(5) When any animal or pet is sold as authorized in this law to satisfy a lien for any of the services enumerated, any monies realized from the sale, less said charges, and any expenses incurred in making the demand for payment thereof in connection with the sale, shall be paid to the owner of the animal or pet.

(6) . No legal proceeding for the enforcement of the lien created by this law shall be necessary concerning abandoned animals as defined in paragraph 2 of this section, other than compliance with the requirements herein provided.
